Try with All one's Might

Principal Fumikazu Sige-hisa

「Cherry blossom petals on our schoolyard are souvenirs for our grandchildren」
Kawasaki City Kanagawa Prefecture, Kazuichi Aoyama.
March is the only month left in the 2007-2008 academic year with the weather bouncing back and forth, we find ourselves of the beginning of spring.

The children grew strong minds thanks to everybody this year because of that we are able to advance towards graduation and higher grader. We are sincerely grateful to parents, the local community, and teachers.

There are sixteen school days in March; (fifteen for the sixth graders)
Children are reviewing thing precious year's material to be certain they have instilled academic fundamentals. Under the guidance of teachers, the classes have collected a number of works to look back in memory and are now practicing the graduation ceremony.

The staff has been working together to insure all 129 children have grown confidence and hope as they advance through school.

At this time of year, accidents occur as we get comfortable and relax.
Please talk about the progress over this past year and the resolutions for the following year. Discuss and guide your children towards a proper way of living please.

As we celebrate the graduation of the sixth graders and threw entrance into middle school, please work together to assume the younger children develop hopes and confidence too.

Thank you for all the guidance, advice, and support everybody gave our school this past year.

Stop Bullying Campaign : 「Closing Ceremony of the Family Education Class」

A video forum and an educational lecture was held at the family education class aiming to stop bullying in February. The importance of helping in the home was discussed at the video forum.

There was also a lecture about what should be done through family education by Chief Clerk Irieda of the Social Education Division.

If you have any problems regarding bullying and seek consultation, please call our school. TEL 478-2005
